Quartet by Ronald Harwood

Cecily, Reggie and Wilfred reside in a home for retired opera singers in Kent. They rub along together quite nicely even though each is quite different from the others.

The steady routine of the home is thrown into disarray however with the arrival of Jean, who used to be married to Reggie, and still acts like the diva she once was.

Each year, on the tenth of October, there is a concert to celebrate Verdi's birthday. Plans are made for them to reprise their most famous role as the quartet in Rigoletto. However Jean refuses to sing...

But the show must go on in this funny and poignant play that cleverly addresses the ageing process.

Quartet premiered at the Albery Theatre, London in 1999 starring Donald Sinden and Stephanie Cole, and has since been made into a film with Pauline Collins, Maggie Smith, Tom Courtney and Billy Connolly.

Quartet opens on Thursday 19 March for 3 nights at Almscliffe Village Hall in Weeton. Curtain up at 7.45pm promptly.

All tickets cost just £7.50 and can be obtained from:
