THE CAST

RICHARD GIBSON

Richard Gibson has lived in Weeton for five years and returns to the stage after a break of 25 years. He trained at the famous Intake School of Drama & Dance and was involved in the early days of the Leeds Playhouse.

LUCY DAVIES

Lucy joined Weeton & Huby Players in 1992. As a novice to amateur dramatics Lucy has enjoyed many aspects in putting together a production from backstage to helping front of house. She has appeared previously in Murdered to Death and Dangerous Corner.

CHRIS HOLLAND

Chris Holland joined Weeton & Huby Players in 1990. A veteran actor who began "treading the boards" in gangshows as an eight year-old cub scout made his debut for the society as Danny the psychopathic killer in the thriller Night Must Fall. Since then he has appeared in a wide range of plays, concentrating mainly on comedy and character parts.

PAULINE MOULSDALE

Pauline has been a member of Weeton & Huby Players since moving to the village in 1981. Since then she has appeared in several productions as victim and villain, in comedy, whodunit and drama. Backstage she has prompted, propped and produced as well as serving as Chairman and Secretary to the society.

PAM DAWSON

Pam joined the society over 16 years ago. After seeing one of the productions in the village hall she was persuaded to appear in one of the future plays - the rest is history and she has become a regular member of the cast. She has played numerous roles from dolly birds with foreign accents to old women in hats and wigs.

JOYCE DAWSON

Joyce has been involved with the Weeton & Huby Players since 1961 appearing regularly on stage at the village hall and at drama festivals, as well as helping backstage.
